

Jonathan Alpeyrie

April 11 – May 31, 2012

Opening Reception: Wednesday, April 11, 6:30-8:30

As a journalist, always in search of a certain historical truth within today's framework, the stories of each of these veterans interviewed and photographed is a treasure of human perseverance. – Jonathan Alpeyrie

Anastasia Photo is pleased to present Jonathan Alpeyrie's first exhibition with the gallery. Born in Paris in 1979, Jonathan Alpeyrie's career as a photojournalist stretches over a decade, and has brought him to over 25 countries, covering 11 conflict zones, mostly in East Africa, the South Caucasus, and central Asia. He is a staff photographer for Polar Images and his photographs have been widely published in magazines and newspapers around the world including Paris Match, Times (Europe), Newsweek, Boston Globe, Glamour (France and Spain) and The New York Times.

The Second World War was fought by an entire generation of men from more than 60 nations. Jonathan Alpeyrie has made portraits of 223 veterans from 63 nations and documented their testimony of the war. This exhibition is a powerful document of these men and this unique time in world history and will include a selection of diptychs presenting veterans who fought on opposing sides during the war.

Anastasia-Photo specializes in documentary photography and Photojournalism. The gallery also serves as a center for discussion and portfolio review. To connect these photographic images and the events they depict, Anastasia Photo endows each exhibition with a related, on site, philanthropic organization. With this exhibition we have selected to support, Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America, (<http://iava.org>).

For further information or questions please contact Richard Hendricks, richard@anastasia-photo.com. The gallery is open Wednesday – Sunday, 11:00am-7:00pm.